

Instructions for Form REV-1500

Pennsylvania Inheritance Tax Return Resident Decedent

REV-1500 EX (01-16)

⚠ Important. All legal sized documents must be reduced to 8 1/2 x 11 paper.

GENERAL INFORMATION

STATUTES AND GENERAL DESCRIPTIONS

Pennsylvania inheritance tax is imposed by the Inheritance and Estate Tax Act of 1991, which applies to estates of decedents who died on or after Oct. 3, 1991. The 1991 Act [72 P.S. § 9101 et seq.] was amended in 1994, for estates of decedents who died on or after July 1, 1994 and again in 1995 for estates of decedents who died on or after Jan. 1, 1995. The PA Inheritance Tax was previously imposed by the Inheritance and Estate Tax Act of 1961, which applies to estates of decedents who died between Jan. 1, 1962, and Dec. 13, 1982. The law was amended by Act 255 of 1982, which applies only to estates of decedents who died between Dec. 13, 1982, and Oct. 3, 1991. Information on applicability of inheritance tax to estates of decedents who died before Jan. 1, 1962, can be obtained from the Department of Revenue, Bureau of Individual Taxes.

Inheritance tax is a tax on the right of succession or privilege of receiving property at a death, and it is imposed upon the transfer of taxable property. The net value subject to tax is determined by subtracting from the value of the gross estate the amount of approved deductions.

WHO MUST FILE

An inheritance tax return must be filed for every decedent who has property which is or may be subject to tax. You must file a return if you are:

- The personal representative. The personal representative (executor or administrator appointed by the Register of Wills) of the decedent's estate is the person responsible for filing the return and disclosing property of the decedent that the personal representative has or acquires knowledge of, or;

- The transferee of property. The transferee of property should file a return if: no personal representative is appointed, if the personal representative does not file a return, or if the personal representative files a return but does not include the subject property.

A "transferee" means any person to whom a transfer is made and includes surviving joint tenants, beneficiaries, heirs, legatees, devisees, grantees, assignees and donees. The return must disclose any asset in which or from which the transferee receives any ownership, interest, income, possession or enjoyment, whether present or future, and whether in trust or otherwise. Separate returns are not to be filed by transferees for property included in a personal representative's return. The inclusion of property in the return does not constitute an admission that its transfer is taxable.

WHEN TO FILE

File as soon as possible after the decedent's death, but not later than nine months from the decedent's death. Failure to file may subject the estate to a penalty of 25 percent of the tax ultimately found to be due or $1,000, whichever is less.

EXTENSION TO FILE

If the return cannot be filed within nine months from the decedent's date of death, an extension to file may be requested from the Department of Revenue. Provide the decedent's name, county file number (if known), date of death, Social Security number and the reason for an extension. The extension request must be made before the return is due, and should be mailed to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF INDIVIDUAL TAXES
INHERITANCE TAX DIVISION-EXT
PO BOX 280601
HARRISBURG PA 17128-0601

Or email the request to:
RA-InheritanceTaxExt@pa.gov

Extensions will be granted for events beyond the control of the estate such as litigation over assets and will disputes. Extensions are not granted for events within the control of the estate such as a failure to collect the information needed to complete the return. A response will not be sent unless the extension request is rejected.

⚠ Important. Granting of an extension to file does not relieve the estate from the payment of tax. Interest will accrue beginning nine months and one day from the decedent's death on any tax ultimately found to be due and not timely paid.

WHERE TO FILE

The return is to be filed in duplicate with the Register of Wills of the county in which the decedent was a resident at the time of death.

FORMS AND SCHEDULES

Forms and schedules are available on the department's website at www.revenue.pa.gov or by calling 1-800-362-2050. Services for people with special hearing and/or speaking needs are available at 1-800-447-3020.

Large quantities of forms must be ordered by written request from:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES
TAX FORMS SERVICES UNIT
1854 BROOKWOOD STREET
HARRISBURG PA 17104-2244

A list of schedules and a brief description can be found on Page 7.

TAXABLE PROPERTY

In general, any items the decedent owned solely, as tenant-in-common, jointly or in trust are taxable unless specifically excluded by law. For additional information see instructions for Schedules A, B, C, D, E, F and G for descriptions of taxable property.

VALUATION

Generally, valuation is based on the fair market value as of the decedent's date of death. Special rules apply to the valuation of life estates and future interests created by a decedent. See the instructions for Schedules K and M for more information.

For estates of decedents dying on or after Jan. 1, 1995, special rules exist for the valuation of a trust established for the sole use of the surviving spouse. See the instructions for Schedule O for further information.

Special rules also apply to the valuation of farmland. See the instructions for Schedule A for further information concerning the special farm use valuation and agriculture exemptions.

It is important to note that Pennsylvania does not have a six-month alternate valuation date similar to that found in the Internal Revenue Code.

DEDUCTIONS

Funeral expenses, administrative costs and debts owed by the decedent at the time of death are deductions allowed against the inheritance tax liability. See the instructions for Schedules H and I for descriptions of allowable deductions.

TAX RATES

The law in effect at the date of death is what governs the tax rate. The following information is based on a date of death on or after July 1, 2000.

Spousal Tax Rate: 0 percent

Any asset passing to a decedent's spouse is taxed at 0 percent. No common-law marriage contracted after Jan. 1, 2005 shall be valid. Common-law marriages otherwise lawful and contracted on or before Jan. 1, 2005 will be recognized when proved with sufficient evidence of its existence. If satisfactory evidence of the common-law marriage does not exist or the contract came into existence after Jan. 1, 2005 transfers to the surviving common-law spouse are taxable at the collateral, or 15 percent rate.

Minor Child's Estate: 0 percent

Transfers from the estate of a child age 21 or younger to the child's natural parent, adoptive parent or stepparent are subject to a zero tax rate.

Lineal Tax Rate: 4.5 percent

The lineal tax rate is applicable for transfers to: Grandfather, grandmother, father, mother, children, un-remarried wife and husband or widower of a child, and lineal descendants. "Children" includes natural children whether or not they have been adopted by others, adopted children and stepchildren. "Lineal descendants" includes all children of the natural parents and their descendants, whether or not they have been adopted by others, adopted descendants and their descendants, and step descendants.

Sibling Tax Rate: 12 percent

The sibling tax rate is applicable for transfers to: Brothers or half-brothers, sisters or half-sisters; persons having at least one parent in common with the decedent, either by blood or by adoption. Transfers between stepsiblings are subject to tax at the collateral rate.

Collateral Tax Rate: 15 percent

The collateral tax rate is applicable for transfers to all other beneficiaries. This includes but is not limited to transfers to or for the benefit of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, friends, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, pets and organizations not classified as a charity.

Charitable Bequests

Transfers to exempt charitable organizations, exempt institutions and government entities are exempt from tax.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENT

If the decedent died testate or had maintained an inter-vivos (living) trust, a copy of the will and/or trust document must be submitted with the return. Additional verification or documentation on certain assets or deductions may be required by the Department of Revenue to complete the review of this form. The Department will request by letter, telephone, or e-mail the information needed. Failure to provide the information will result in a delay of the processing of the return, or in the issuance of an unfavorable assessment.

Any supplemental information which the estate representative considers confidential should be submitted directly to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF INDIVIDUAL TAXES
PO BOX 280601
HARRISBURG PA 17128-0601

Include a statement that the documents are not part of the public record. Confidential documents need not be attached to the return filed with the Register of Wills.

FILING A FALSE RETURN

Any person who willfully makes a false return or report commits a misdemeanor of the third degree.

PAYMENT OF TAX

Tax on property transferred is due within nine months of the decedent's death.

 Important. The granting of an extension to file the tax return does not extend the time for payment of the tax ultimately found to be due.

A 5 percent discount is allowed on the tax paid within three months of the decedent's death. No discount applies to any amount that may be subsequently refunded.

The discount is capped at 5 percent of the total tax due. In order to calculate discount amount:

- If an underpayment was made, divide the payment made by 0.95. Example: tax due is $150, a payment made in the discount period is $100; $$100.00/0.95 = \105.26 is the total of the payment and discount.
- If the correct amount or overpayment was made, multiply the total tax due by 5 percent to calculate discount. Example: total tax due is $200; $$200 \times 0.05 = \10 is the discount amount.

 Important. All checks must be made payable to "Register of Wills, Agent" and presented to the Register of Wills of the county where the decedent resided.

The commonwealth places no limitation on tax liability until a proper and complete return is made and the return is assessed by the Department of Revenue.

 Note. A prepayment of tax may be made at the Register of Wills before the REV-1500 is filed. In writing, supply the Register with the decedent's full name, date of death and social security number along with the prepayment.

INTEREST

Interest is charged beginning with the first day of delinquency, or nine months and one day from the date of death, to the date of payment. The applicable interest rates (REV-1611) can be found by visiting the department's online services at www.revenue.pa.gov.

An interest and penalty calculator is available at www.doreservices.state.pa.us.

FAILURE TO PAY

The tax imposed, together with any interest thereon, constitute a lien upon real property, which remains in effect until the tax and interest are paid in full. There is no statute of limitations for collection of inheritance tax.

PETITION FOR CITATION

The law provides for the filing of a citation with the Court of Common Pleas, Orphans' Court Division, to compel the filing of the tax return or the payment of tax. It may be directed to the personal representative or transferee and may commence nine months after the date of death. The citation process may result in an order directing filing and payment, a contempt citation, and ultimately, additional fines and imprisonment for failure to comply with the requirements of the Inheritance and Estate Tax Act. See Section 9176 of the Act of August 4, 1991, P.L. 97, No. 22 (72 P.S. §9176).

APPRAISEMENT, ALLOWANCE OR DISALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTIONS AND ASSESSMENT OF TAX

After a return is filed, the Department of Revenue issues a notice setting forth its valuation of the estate assets, allowable deductions and inheritance tax due.

Notice of potential tax liabilities based on jointly held assets, trust assets, or non-probate property are identified through the use of an eight digit number beginning with the two digits representing the year in which the notice is originally issued. For example, all notices issued in 2012 will be numbered 12000001, 12000002, etc. Further information concerning the ACN system may be obtained by contacting the Inheritance Tax Division at 717-787-8327.

 Important. Depending on the complexity of the return, an assessment may take three to six months from the date it was filed with the Register of Wills.

REFUND

If tax is overpaid when the return is filed, a refund may be requested by placing a check mark in the "Refund Requested" oval on Line 20 of the return. If this oval is checked, the estate is not required to submit a separate application for refund. The department will issue a refund check approximately six weeks after the return processing is completed. If the refund oval on Line 20 of the return was not checked when the tax return was filed, an "Application for Refund of Pennsylvania Inheritance/Estate Tax" (REV-1313) must be filed to request a refund of an existing tax credit reflected on an official assessment notice. Refund applications should be directed to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF INDIVIDUAL TAXES
INHERITANCE TAX DIVISION-REF
PO BOX 280601
HARRISBURG PA 17128-0601

The application for refund period is three years. (See Section 9181(d) of the 1991 Act, as amended by Act 7 of 1997).

Should you believe that a refund is due as the result of an issue which had not previously been raised, and where the statutory appeal provisions of Section 9186(a) of the 1991 Act, as amended, have expired, a petition for refund may be filed with the Board of Appeals provided that all tax, penalty and interest assessed were paid in full. Visit www.boardofappeals.state.pa.us for more information.

SUPPLEMENTAL RETURN

A personal representative or transferee who acquires knowledge of additional assets, transfers or deductions at any time after the original return has been filed must promptly file a supplemental return. The supplemental return should include only the additional assets, transfers or deductions.

 Do not repeat any assets or deductions reported on an original return or prior supplemental return.

A supplemental return may not be used to adjust or correct a previously filed return. If a correction is needed for an asset that was reported on a return, see "Administrative Corrections" below on how to request an administrative correction. If there is an error contained in an assessed return that must be resolved see "Administrative Corrections" or "Protest, Notice or Appeal". It is important to note that it is not possible to file an amended inheritance tax return. When the value of an asset or deduction has been established by assessment notice from the department, any discrepancy must be resolved either through the refund process or through the appeal process.

ADMINISTRATIVE CORRECTIONS

Obvious factual errors discovered on the assessment may be corrected administratively. Examples of correctable errors include those made by the transposing of figures, mathematical errors, miscalculations and obvious duplication of assets. The estate must report such errors to the Department of Revenue by a letter which identifies the alleged error and the proposed correction. Any documentation which supports the need for an adjustment to the record must be submitted. Requests for administrative correction should be directed to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF INDIVIDUAL TAXES
POST ASSESSMENT REVIEW UNIT
PO BOX 280601
HARRISBURG PA 17128-0601

All other errors must be resolved in accordance with guidelines outlined in the Protest, Notice or Appeal section.

The Pennsylvania Department of Revenue has a Taxpayers' Rights Advocate who assists taxpayers with PA personal income tax and PA inheritance tax problems and concerns that have not been resolved through normal administrative procedures. It is the advocate's responsibility to ensure that the department provides equitable treatment with dignity and respect.

To contact the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate, call 717-772-9347 or write to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
TAXPAYERS' RIGHTS ADVOCATE
LOBBY STRAWBERRY SQUARE
HARRISBURG PA 17128

PROTEST, NOTICE OR APPEAL

Any party is not satisfied with the appraisal, allowance or disallowance of deductions, assessment of tax (including discount or interest) or any other matter relating to the tax imposed may object by taking any of the following actions within 60 days of receipt of the notice to which objection is made:

(a) File a written protest specifying all objections with:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BOARD OF APPEALS
PO BOX 281021
HARRISBURG PA 17128-1021

The Board of Appeals does not accept facsimile or fax copies of petition forms.

(b) File an appeal or intent to appeal online through the Revenue e-Services Center at www.revenue.state.pa.us.

(c) Notify the Register of Wills in writing that you elect to have the correctness of the department's action determined at the audit of the account of the personal representative. A copy of this election must be sent to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
OFFICE OF CHIEF COUNSEL
PO BOX 281061
HARRISBURG PA 17128-1061

(d) File an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas, Orphans' Court Division to have the correctness of the department's action determined at the "audit of the account" of the personal representative or at such time as the court shall fix. A copy of the appeal must be sent to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
OFFICE OF CHIEF COUNSEL
PO BOX 281061
HARRISBURG PA 17128-1061
